OPPORTUNITIES.

At Alamo WorkSource, we provide you comprehensive information on a wide array of local job opportunities. Whether you're just out of school, new to town or ready to start a whole new career – we're ready to help. All for free!

LABOR MARKET INFORMATION

The more you know about the job market, the better prepared you'll be to make career decisions and find a job that's right for you. Alamo WorkSource Career Centers can tell you what jobs are in demand today and what the jobs of the future will be. Learn which employers are hiring, what they are paying, which jobs are growing and changing and what skills are required for today's top jobs.

MORE THAN
help wanted.

HELP GIVEN.

There are a lot of opportunities out there. But you have to know where to look and how to approach them. Alamo WorkSource will help you conduct a successful job search based on your interests, skills and experience.

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

Education and skills are essential in today's job market. The more you learn, the more you earn. Alamo WorkSource Career Centers have information on available education and training programs and providers. For those who did not complete high school, need assistance with improving reading and math skills or require help learning English, free literacy classes are available. You can also find out if you qualify for financial assistance to participate in occupational training programs. Through career assessment, Career Centers staff will help you identify your interests and capabilities so you can develop the knowledge and skills you need to succeed.

a resource.

A LIFE LINE.

Landing your dream job takes more than filling out applications. Alamo WorkSource can provide training for résumé writing, developing solid interview skills and more. All of which puts you in a much greater position.

JOB SEARCH RESOURCES

Alamo WorkSource Career Centers have the resources you need to help you in your job search. You'll find current job listings, newspapers, telephones, copiers, printers, fax machines and a computer lab with Internet access, all available at no cost to you. You'll also find a variety of workshops and seminars on such topics as résumé writing, interviewing skills and conducting an effective job search.

At Alamo WorkSource Career Centers, Career Counselors will help guide you through the process of preparing for and finding a career. Other services include information and referrals to community resource partners for services such as child care, housing assistance, transportation, counseling, veterans' services and much more.
